

PREISS FINE ARTS

CELEBRATES

10
YEARS
OF FINE ART PHOTOGRAPHY

PREISS FINE ARTS is celebrating now it's 10 years anniversary and works with the most celebrated names in the field. The gallery works only with the world most influential and renowned contemporary photographers who are exhibited worldwide in museums and prestigious private collections.

An exclusive curated 10 years exhibition shows one whole year highlights and icons of this growing genre. Already 10 years ago Andrea Preiss, CEO/Owner of PREISS FINE ARTS, realized the trend and the potential of fine art photography by the most famous photographers of the world. Each artwork is made and signed by the artist in a strictly limited edition.

ICONS OF FINE ART - 10 YEARS ANNIVERSARY

Masterpieces by Albert Watson – the master of all styles – will be on display along with Michel Comte’s breathtakingly uncompromising portraits and urban trend photo art by David Drebin, icons by Ellen von Unwerth the so-called female Helmut Newton, Rankin, Liu Bolin and many more of the most influential contemporary photographers. Albert Watson has photographed many of the world’s most famous personalities: kings and presidents, movie stars, pop singers and super models, such as Kate Moss and Naomi Campbell.

A tireless workaholic, Watson has taken about 10 million photographs over the course of forty years and become one of the most accomplished artists working in fine art photography today.

Already 10 years ago Andrea Preiss, CEO/Owner of PREISS FINE ARTS, realized the trend and the potential of fine art photography by the most famous photographers of the world. The success has proved her right.

PREISS FINE ARTS is now one of the most successful fine art galleries of the world and has made the fine art genre a major and important one like it is - it is important to remember that photography is the youngest of all collectable art forms.
